Mr. Fred. Doefield,

Dear Sir:-

Mr. C. G. Roberts, in a letter received to-day, informs us that you have a number of coins which you desire to sell. If you will send them to us by express, we will at once make you an offer for them in cash, and if accepted send you check immediately, or return the coins as you direct.

Yours respectfully,

S. Mr. H. Chapman,
Gentlemen,

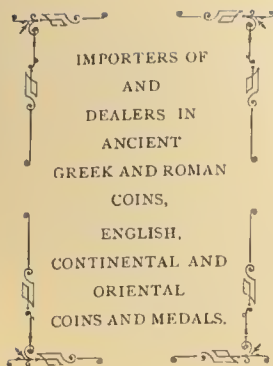

As I cannot arrive at a definite value for my coins, I think it better that you make a bid for the lot as it is my intention to sell them - Leave out, however, the 1795 Gold piece, I am offered $18.00 for it here, and leave out also the Roman Coins.

Please let me have your figures.
Very truly,

F. A. Doepfeld

Mr. F. A. Dolfield,

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 26th. received. As we allowed you $18.00 for the 1795 Eagle we prefer to keep it in the lot, and have just re-estimated your entire collection, finding that our previous offer of $58.00 still holds good, omitting the following which we will return to you;--

Virginia 1/2 perries, 4 pcs.

Mass. cent,

Two, 1794 Talbot Allum Lee cents,

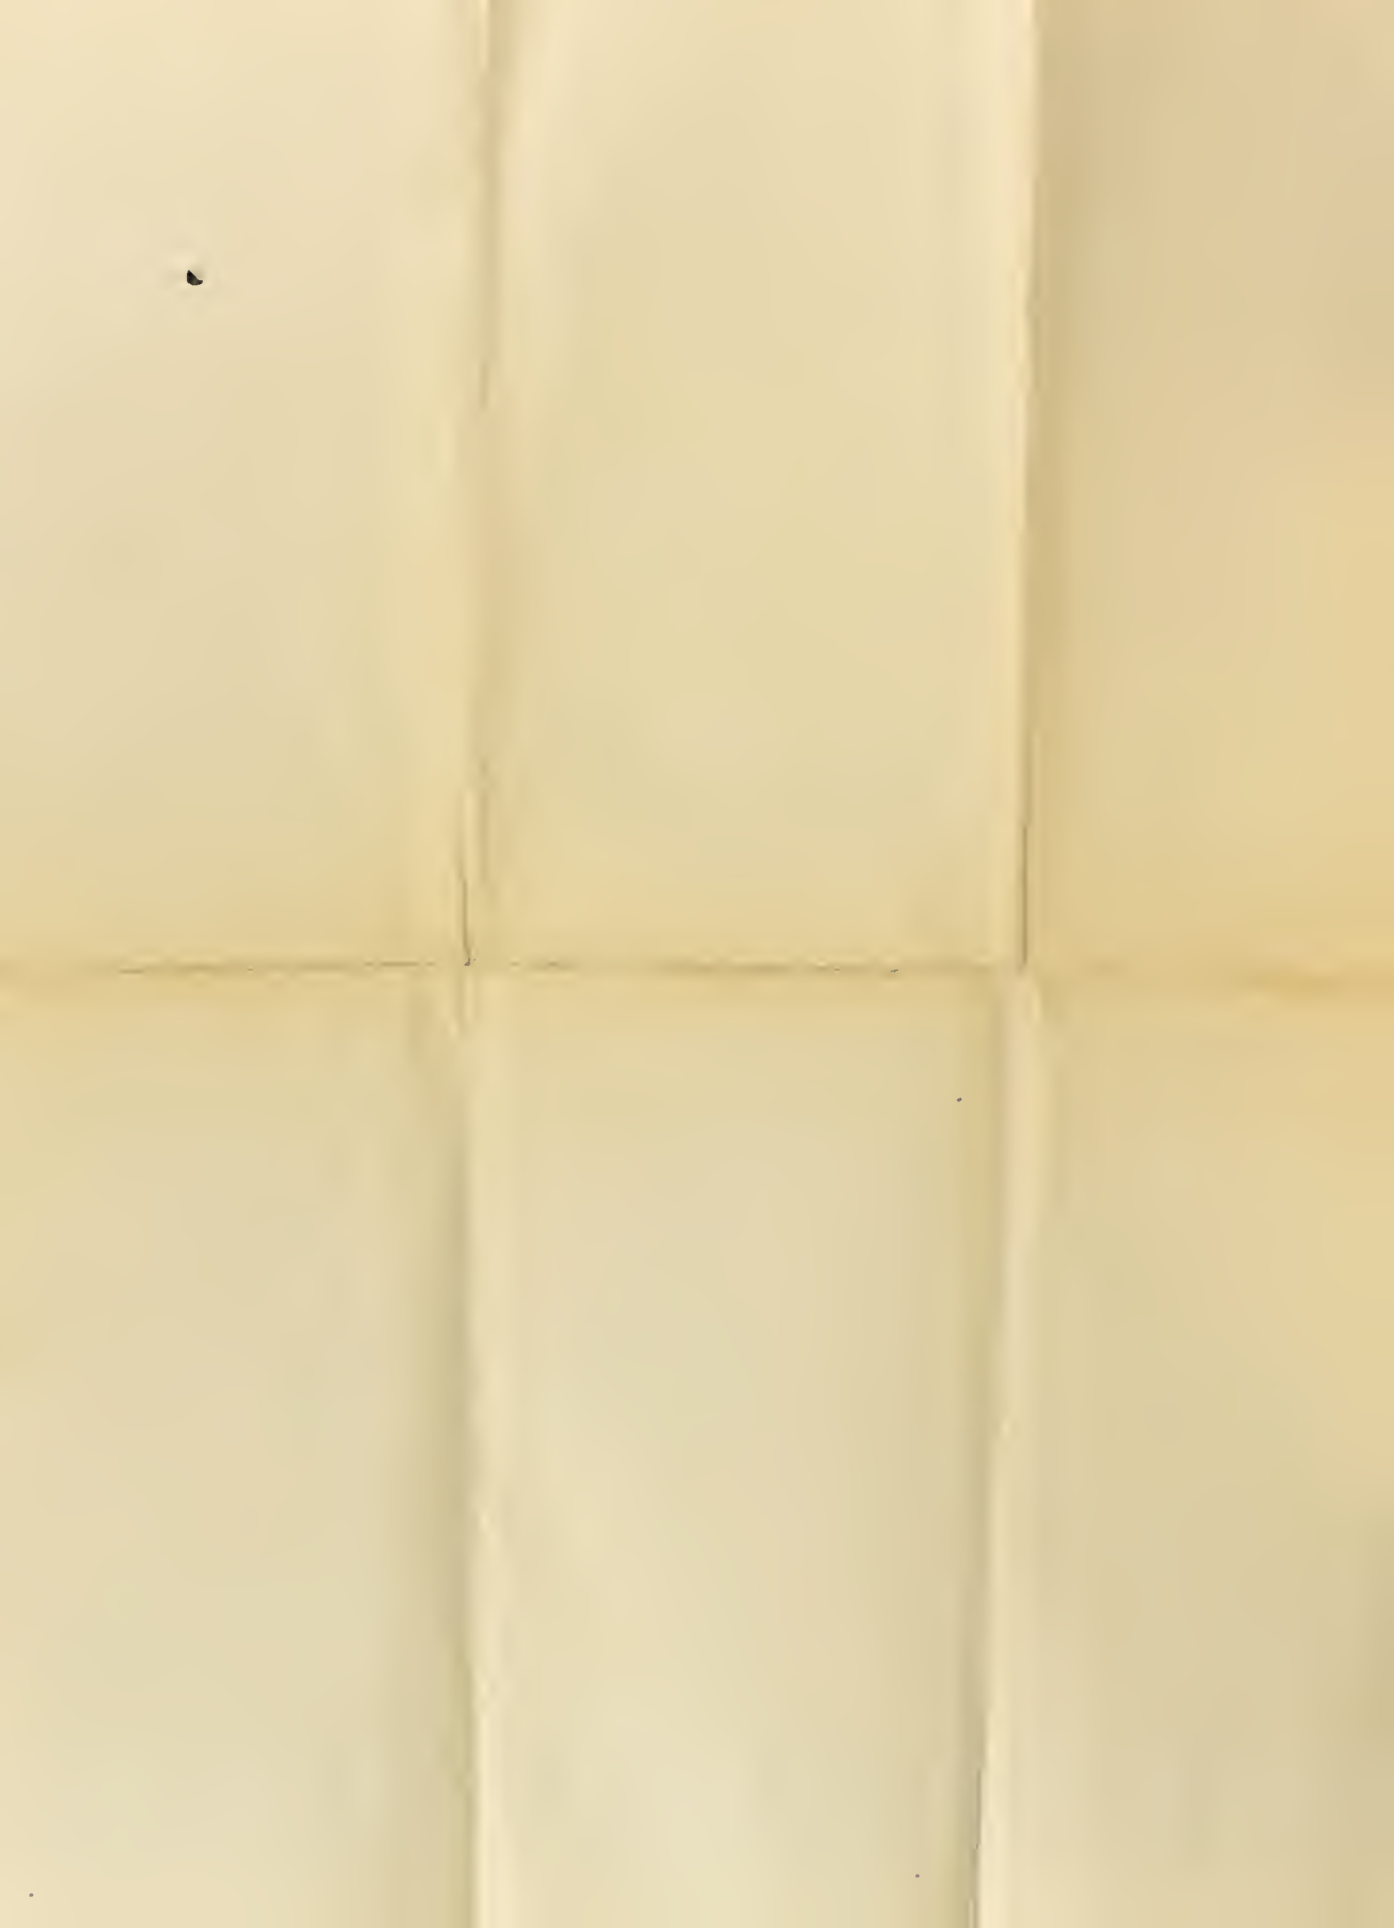

One Washington cent, which is only a cast in lead, and therefore of no value

9 Roman coins,

If you wish to accept this offer we will send you check immediately, returning the other coins without expense to you.

Yours respectfully,

S. H. Chapman

Henry Chapman Esq
Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose correspondence from your brother relative to my coins. You will see that on June 17th he wrote me asking me to send them by express. I did not write him first.

As I can get a far better price for them here, I asked for their return, but have not yet received them.

Very truly,

F. A. Dolfeld
